Embodiment of all the glorious Buddhas, Karmapa,
Treasury of compassion that surpasses all the Buddhas.
Powerful compassionate one, Noble Avalokiteśvara
For oceans of eons, please live and prosper!

Through the illuminating awareness, inferred and directly perceived,

Seeing defiled and undefiled objects of reality as they are;

Whose speech is a nectar rain of renunciation and dharma that tames

Essence of the 'wish-fulfilling wheel' [White Tara], please live and prosper!

From the outset, inseparable dependent-arising and emptiness,

By the reasoning of middle way, union of the two truths

A mind that defeats all hordes of maras holding to extremes

Essence of Namgyalma, please live and prosper!

Seeing the abiding reality of the ultimate objects of body and mind,

Generating the stages of cause and effect on the path, the liberating method

Discoverer of the supreme qualities of that endowed with the seven unions [Vajradhara]¹

Essence of Vajradhara, please live and prosper!

The ground continuum, manifested Dharmakāya

The path continuum, the vidyadhara who has completed the five stages
The result continuum, the treasury of activity and primordial awareness
Essence of the 'Lake-Born' [Guru Rinpoche], please live and prosper!

By the blessing of supplicating like that,

Venerable guru, please remain for hundreds of eons,

Turn the profound and vast wheel of Dharma of all-aspects, and

Bless us that the joyful revelation of theory and practice increase!

May the Karmapa's glorious lineage of Buddha's teachings

Continually expand, across all space and time!

May I and all wanderers be cared for by the guru, and

Be awarded the auspicious, simultaneous accomplishment of the two purposes!

Supplication to the Three Great Masters of the Kagyu Lineage

With great courage visiting the Noble Land of India With great wisdom seeing the essence of Dharma With great accomplishment performing all the miracles At the feet of great Translator Marpa, I supplicate.

With great power cutting through the attachments With great endurance and practice pleasing the Guru With great diligence upholding the victory banner At the feet of the great yogi Milarepa, I supplicate.

With the clear awareness of the Mahayana path With the call to attain realization of the nature of Mahamudra With great Buddha activities pervading the vast expanse of space At the feet of the great master Gampopa, I supplicate.

To all the lineage holders and masters I humbly pray
To remain in this world for continuing the lineages and teachings
To spread and propagate the precious Dharma in the ten directions
Till great virtue and goodness fill the entire world.

This prayer was composed by Jamyang Khyentse Wangpo. Melody composed and chanted by H.H the 17th Gyalwang Karmapa Ogyen Trinley Dorje.

¹ These are the seven aspects of union (kha sbyor bdun ldan) and define the aspects of Sambhogakaya Buddhas. They are the aspect of 1) being without self-nature, 2) union, 3) great bliss, 4) complete enjoyment, 5) freedom from interruption, 6) filled with great compassion, 7) continuity.
